VIRGINIANS WILL HONOR MOTHERS

Governor Mann Issues Proclamation Enjoining Wearing of White Flower.

KANSAS WANTS OUR HAM

Official of Western State Trying to Learn About Virginia Product.

Every citizen of Virginia is asked to wear a white flower on Sunday, May 14, in honor of his mother. This request is officially made by Governor Mann in a proclamation issued yesterday. Last year the Governor issued a similar paper, and the day was generally observed in Richmond and in most places in the State.

The proclamation follows:
"The homes of a State are the fountains of civic life and civic virtue, and in proportion to their purity and the righteousness of their teaching will be the men and women coming from them to make up the life and power of the State. The mother is, after all, the head and queen of the home, and upon her, to a very large extent, depends the future of her children. Her life is full of love and sacrifice, and her happiness is to give the most enjoyment and pleasure to those about her.

"Feeling sure that the people of Virginia feel as I do, I earnestly request that upon the second Sunday in May next a white flower may be worn by every citizen of this State, and that in every possible way the mothers of Virginia may be honored.

"I respectfully request the ministers of all denominations to bring this proclamation to the attention of their congregations.

THREE DEAD IN RUSSIA.

Two Others Injured in Shooting Affrays on Saturday and Sunday.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Roanoke, Va., April 24.—[Russel-] county has a death roll of three and two injured in shooting affrays which occurred Saturday and Sunday.

Saturday night on Cracker Creek LaFayette McFarland was shot and instantly killed by James Bell. Bell went to Lebanon, the county seat, and gave himself up, saying that his act was justifiable.

At a ball game at Dante Sunday afternoon Palmer Radcliff, colored, shot and killed Bill Aston.
At a dance Saturday night one negro was killed and a white man and a negro were wounded. Details of all three shooting affrays are meagre.
